OQUIRRH'S COLONEL BEST.

Captures First Prize for Finest Dog Entered-Winners in Each Class Picked by Bruette.

Ush Kennel Club came to a close on Saturday night at the Auditorium and was pronounced by the promoters and those who attended to be a success in every particular. Only in one respect did the show fall behind the one of that year and that was in the matter of atendance which was slightly below the first mark. But there were more dogs and they were of a higher class. The loca-tion was better and the arrangements and management showed a great improvement over the first exhibition.

After the winners in the various classes had been picked by Judge W. A. Bruette of Chicago, the question of declding which was the best dog in the show was taken up, and after all had show was taken up, and after all had been carefully looked over, Judge Brutte decided that the prize belonged to Oquirth's Colonel, and the prize was accordingly awarded. JOHNSON AND WINE.

New York, April 4.—Jack Johnson, the puglist, seems to be cutting out a pace in the tenderloin that will fade anything on the record of Young Corbett and other white-lighters. Johnson was in court the other day complaining tha "a couple of skirts" pinched two diamond rings and the 4150 rock out of his shirt front. Joe Gans says that if Johnson's thirst isn't quenched soon there won't be no mo' wine."

Hackenschmidt looked as if he had been in a priez fight instead of a wrestling match today. The left side of his head was badly swollen and his left eve inflamed, His eyelids were swollen and lacerated. He said this was done by Gotch's thumb. As to plans while in America, Hackenschmidt said he was undecided on what he would do.

There is no man in all England who has a chance with your man Gotch. He is king of his class, the greatest man by far that I ever have met. After going nearly two hours with him my muscles became stale. My feet also gave way on me. I had trained so constantly against the toe hold that I had strained the muscles of my legs. When I found myself weakening I knew there was no use continuing. I had no chance to win. That was the rason I conceded the championship to him. I have no desire to wrestle him again. A return match would not win back my title."
